Nigeria - International Education Fair & Schools' Tour

Information

This leading fair will offer you an opportunity to meet prospective Nigerian students and parents looking for international education as well as qualified high schools and education agents. Last year event welcomed over 5200 students and 39 agent representatives.

Nigeria is widely-recognised as an important emerging market for international education, with over 100,000 Nigerians students studying abroad annually. These numbers are increasing steadily due to concerns over the quality of domestic education.

The International Education Fair and Schools' Tour Nigeria has created a benchmark by bringing delegates of popular institution to Nigeria to meet qualified high schools and prospective students who are keen to gain admission in the upcoming sessions. The fair helps thousands of students every year to pursue education overseas. Motivated by the organiser's core values 'ethics, expertise and leadership', the fair is the one of the most reputable events in the field of overseas education in Nigeria.

The fair expects a total of 10000+ students, 30+ Institutions from world top destinations, 10+ qualified high schools tour and dignitaries from essential sectors that assist Nigeria students' mobility to the world.

We highly recommend you to make your registration as soon as possible as the places are limited.
