

Slovenia- International Education Exhibition

Information

The fair is one of the most successful and longest running recruitment events in Southern Europe. It provides free advice for more than 30,000 young people a year, and over 8,000 of them successfully find and sign up to your university abroad. The aim is to bring international educational institutions into contact with Slovenian students looking to pursue a degree or short term program abroad. The exhibitors taking part in this expo provide a variety of language programs, undergraduate and postgraduate programs.
