HONG KONG INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION FAIR - SUMMER

Information

Hong Kong International Student Fair has become the most popular and informative education event in Hong Kong since its debut in 2004. The large-scale and well-found study resources exchange platform favor this event to be the most popular summer Expo of its kind in the city.

Reasons to Attend

The fair is well-positioned to continue delivering rich information exposures and timely preparation for candidates* and parents in tandem with the release of 1st HKDSE and HKAL results.

In 2017, over 20,000 visitors and 400 education providers from 20 countries and regions (Hong Kong, China, the U.K., the U.S.A., Australia, New Zealand, Canada, Switzerland and Japan), gathered to provide students with latest career-oriented programs and academic courses. A wide spectrum of learning programs in diplomas, higher diplomas, associate degrees, bachelor degrees, master degrees and vocational trainings will be available.

Market Overview

Hong Kong is a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China and has a population of 7 million people. It is a dynamic market environment, now being influenced positively by major education reforms and changes to the academic structure being phased in between 2009 and 2012.

There is a well-established tradition among Hong Kong families of sending their children to study overseas. According to a Thematic Household Survey Report on 'Hong Kong students studying outside Hong Kong', by the Census and Statistics Department in December 2010, there were 66,700 people aged 25 and below who intended to study outside Hong Kong in the next five years.

Fair Outline

The 23rd edition is widely supported by various youth organizations and associations, educational professions and media parties. To cope with challenges in highly competitive knowledge-based community, we aspire to stride across the transitional period of the 3.3.4. education system with students, encourage them to pursue promising future with global vision through whole person education.

Event Highlights:

- Over 200 local and overseas educational institutions enroll students on-site
- Various associate degrees and diplomas open for application
- Over 30 seminars cover details of various studies information and trainings

- Career-oriented curriculum
- Prizes for daily lucky draw winners

*Keen Competition in 2012 Public Examinations:

- 1st HKDSE - 77,000 candidates strive for merely 15,000 4-year curriculum vacancies among local universities
- HK A-Level - 36,000 candidates strive for merely 15,000 3-year curriculum vacancies among local universities

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION INDIA EXPO ROADSHOW- FALL

Information

The India EXPO Roadshow offers international education institutions, of any discipline and from any country, the opportunity to present their courses to thousands of pre-selected and pre-screened students in India and Sri Lanka's most productive markets during their leading International Student Recruitment Fairs.

Market Overview

Often regarded as easy-to-penetrate markets, India and Sri Lanka form the cornerstone of many educational institution's international student intake. With almost 200,000 Indian and Sri Lankan students currently studying abroad - a number that seemingly has no limits - only China sends more international students overseas.

India has the 2nd largest population of higher education students, and is predicted to pass China within the next 10 years, with an estimated 119 million college aged students by 2025. Already over 50% of the country's population is under the age of 25, making India home to one of the world's youngest populations.

Indian students tend to look for recognition on a global level to give them a competitive edge over the huge number of peers that they will be competing with for jobs. They believe that the best way to find this is through quality education, which is limited within India, but in abundance overseas.

Reasons to Attend

Language schools, colleges, universities, high schools, IT colleges, business schools, hotel schools, postgraduate and MBA programs from more than 40 countries have experienced increased enrollments and brand awareness through the EXPO Roadshows. Student participants are screened through online questionnaires to ensure only the highest quality visitors attend the events. Each attendee's capability and desire to study abroad is assessed, ensuring that invitations are sent only to those who have the genuine intention and the financial means to study abroad.

- High student quality: Student participants are screened through online questionnaires to ensure only the highest quality visitors attend the events.

The fairs are supported by Austrade, DAAD, Campusfrance, Education New Zealand, Education USA, British Council and NUFFIC.

MASTERS AND MBA FAIR- PARIS FALL

Information

We welcome you to join The Masters Fair in Paris September 2018. This international event will offer your university or business school the opportunity to promote a wide range of programmes at both master's levels – MA and MBA.

Reasons to Attend

Each year, more than 63,000 French students undertake tertiary studies abroad, with 47,000 French students taking degrees in non-native European Union countries. The Masters Fair in 2016 was a large success, with 6,500 visitors in attendance and with 97% of the exhibitors saying they were satisfied or very satisfied with the event.

Market Overview

France has a population of 62.9 million with a per capita GDP of US $31,096 and is the third-largest economy in Europe after Germany and the UK. French higher education has a long tradition of openness and accessibility*. The national government devotes 20 percent of its annual budget to education. Fees for both French and international students are kept very low to persuade students to stay in education as long as possible. There are about 190,000 international students, from all over the world, currently enrolled in French higher education.

Fair Outline

The Masters Fair is an outstanding event that gives exhibitors the chance to showcase their postgraduate programmes and expertise to highly motivated students. Do not miss out on the opportunity to present your institution, services, and programmes at the Master Fair in Paris.

With the co-operation of the BIOP, the Office of Information and Orientation in Paris and antenne de la CCIP, Chamber of Commerce of Paris, students will have the opportunity to define their future study prospects. Professionals from participating institutions will be able to help students to learn more about the postgraduate courses they offer and support enquiries.

The education fair also incorporates various seminars given by education, work placement and career professionals giving students the possibility to find out more about study and work opportunities.

The official Studyrama Guide to International Studies magazine is distributed during the event. The annual magazine includes information on more than 1000 Masters courses and MBAs; it is rich with advice and practical information.

*Sourced from Education New Zealand and EU figures on cross-border study.
