

Albania - Tirana International Education Fair

Information

Although Tirana is relatively small country, Albania and Kosovo are among the world's hottest markets for international students. Albania has the highest per-capita study abroad rate in Europe. Over 25,000 Albanians, representing almost 1% of the country's population, study abroad mainly in Europe, the US and Canada. Over 380,000 students from Albania and Kosovo are in colleges, universities, and high schools -making plans for their future.

The exhibition will be attended between 2,200 and 2,600 top-quality students will attend. The Fair works with local colleges, universities and high schools to pre-select the most qualified candidates with the greatest chance for success with visas, financial viability, and acceptance to your institutions. They work in partnership with students and their parents, helping them pre-select the best fit of subjects, schools and countries – in preparation for the event. The Fair reaches top talent throughout Albania and Kosovo, bringing students from smaller cities and regions not usually served by education fairs.

Autumn is the prime time for an education fair. Students need autumn and early winter to complete their language preparations. Students and parents use this time to research their choices, finalize their plans, and prepare for applications.

The exhibition has deep ties with all media outlets ensures outstanding publicity prior to, during and following the Fair as well as the fair also has the largest number of social media followers among other companies in Albania. When we post, students listen.

IEFT EuroAsia Agent Workshop - Fall

Information

The fair welcomes nearly 20,000 Turkish students to each of the semi-annual fairs. Throughout the past 10 years, the International Education Fair of Turkey has grown to become the largest education exhibition in both Turkey and the Middle-East, with universities from more than 30 countries attending every year.

Reasons to Attend

The Fair focuses solely on the Turkish Market, and therefore has built a reputation with students throughout the country through strong marketing and promotion of the exhibitions, and excellent relationships with local high schools, universities, language schools and Turkish agents. The previous Fall event welcomed over 300 exhibitors representing over 150 institutions from 27 different countries to the events in Bursa, Ankara, Izmir, and Istanbul.

Market Overview

Turkey is a quickly-developing country, with the youngest population ratio in Europe. The country is working towards being in the top 15 economies of the World by 2020; so now, more than ever, there is a large market for a skilled, educated, globally-minded current and future workforce.

The demand for studying abroad is not only from secondary school students and graduates, but also from 2.5 million university students. The majority of Turkish university students know the role and importance of study abroad in getting a better job in a competitive business world. There are approximately 3.5 million students studying at Turkish universities which also includes Open University students. Around 2 million of them are studying on a 4 year course.

There are around 350,000 university students in Istanbul at around 50 universities. Over 200,000 students at around 20 universities in Ankara. Izmir has 9 universities and 110,000 university students.

Fair Outline

Fair students are from very respected universities and high schools of Turkey. The international education fairs in Turkey are also visited by a number of young and experienced professionals looking for education opportunities abroad. The Fair has a professional and hands-on approach to meeting the needs of our participating institutions, and also to bringing the highest quality Turkish students to its fairs. The Fair is committed to making the recruitment process both successful and enjoyable for both participants and students.

Students attending the exhibition are looking for education all over the world. While the UK and the USA continue to dominate student interest, they are looking more and more towards programs in Canada, Europe and Asia.

We give participating institutions complete support before, during and after the fairs, including:

- Material transportation between cities
- Professional stands with the option of uniquely designed backdrops
- Local high-school and university visits
- Free promotion in IEFT's Study Abroad Magazine, distributed to nearly 20,000 student visitors
- Optional web banners, flyer distribution, newspaper advertisements, and any other promotional branding needs an institution may have
- Well-organized accommodation and transportation options
- Complete visitor statistics sent to all participants upon completion of fair tour
- Amazing social and cultural activities throughout fair

Poland - International Recruitment Tour 2022

Information

The specialised public fair for International Education is taking place in four cities of Poland for the representatives of language schools and executive centres, boarding schools and colleges, universities and business schools.

Reasons to Attend

The International Recruitment Tour in Poland is one of the important specialised education abroad events. The fair features unique educational institutions that represent a wide range of educational and professional programmes: general, intensive and special language courses, basic and secondary education, further education and professional training, diploma programmes, BA/BSc, Masters/MBA, postgraduate and others. Visitors from various target groups including schoolchildren and their parents, young people and students, adults and business people, representatives of private and state companies and organisations, mass media. Each year the fairs receive 2,000 – 5,000 visitors in each country.

Market Overview

More and more students from Poland tend to look for opportunities to gain high-quality international education, professional training and experience. Foreign language courses are becoming increasingly popular among people of different ages and occupations. Every year the number of students going abroad to language schools and universities is steadily growing.

Poland has a long tradition of providing high-quality education. For young people, it is a vibrant and international environment with the possibility to make use of the latest developments in different study fields, which makes the region an attractive place for living and studying.

The fairs are free to access by the public, allowing visitors to get acquainted with the student fair's participants; their courses and programmes and to take enrolments. On the other hand, education providers have the opportunity to meet and support their education agents, the Baltic Council and to establish new contacts.

The success of this fair is based on the qualitative service and professionalism of the organizers combined with a broad promotion campaign providing return of investments for the fair's participants.

During the last several years Poland has become more attractive for education providers from all over the world. This is not a casual interest, but a developing tendency proving that the potential and demand for the educational industry abroad in the country is very high.

The potential for the development of the education industry abroad is very high in Poland and the demand for quality programmes will continue to grow.
