

Francophone Education Fair - Montreal - Fall 2026

07 Nov 2026

Information

The Francophone Education Fair is the definitive gateway for institutions and agencies to tap into the high-demand French speaking market. It provides the perfect opportunity to connect prospective students with institutions offering programs taught in French, as well as opportunities to study directly in Francophone regions. It is the ultimate high-visibility environment to engage directly with qualified applicants, promote global programs, and drive enrolments for the upcoming academic cycle. The Fair aims to help students find an international education path, gap year opportunity, or language immersion program abroad. The fair also aims to connect ambitious young prospects with international mobility experts, program directors, and university representatives to map out global career paths. The objective of the event is to develop a dynamic continuum of the various study abroad, internship, and language training opportunities available globally for students and young professionals.

Reasons to Attend This not to be missed event addresses high school and university students at the undergraduate or graduate level who wish to find information on a Francophone curriculum, study abroad exchanges, or summer schools. It is also directed towards young graduates, parents, and language learners who want to add a highly valuable international dimension to their academic or professional portfolios.

Market Overview

As the world's second-largest destination for international students pursuing higher education in French, Canada offers an unmissable gateway to academic excellence and global career success. Canada is uniquely positioned to offer student pathways that blend world-class North American education with the richness of the French language.

Fair Outline

Among the present institutions: Prestigious schools and French universities, European establishments (German, Swiss, Spanish, English, Belgian), North American establishments (American and Canadian universities), Australian establishments, and a Language Pavillon offering linguistic travel with language courses abroad.

The international mobility/living abroad area

- A number of Canadian, French and European institutions will be available for consultation and international recruitment firms.
- International mobility agencies will be present to give advice and information to visitors looking to move abroad.

Visitors are attracted to the wide range of exhibitors and services provided by the fair including a bookshop with specialised works on living and studying abroad. Conferences and lectures will be held throughout the day to offer a broad spectrum of employment options from various industry sectors and the new tendencies in recruitment. Visitors will also receive copies of a Guide to International Education, which will be given out at the international guide desk at the front of the fair.

This fair is the pre-eminent way for skill and opportunity to join together in a functional environment. This is a great opportunity to promote your services and to enrol students and graduates.
